GPF advance for higher education of a dependent child:

Sl. No.	Name of applicant / GPF account	Department / Purpose	Advance requested
1	Dr. Aditi Bora Assistant Professor GPF-DEMO-001	Department of Physics Higher education of dependent daughter	Rs. 1,80,000/-

We have received an application dated 04 November 2026 from Dr. Aditi Bora, Assistant Professor, Department of Physics, along with a declaration of service and GPF particulars and an illustrative education-fee schedule at Annexure A. The application may kindly be seen at Flag 'A' (DEMO-GPF-001).

The above-mentioned applicant has requested a refundable GPF advance of Rs. 1,80,000/- towards the higher education of the actually dependent daughter, Anika Bora, pursuing B.Tech in Civil Engineering at Example Institute of Engineering. The applicant states that available personal resources are insufficient. This purpose falls under Rule 12.1.1(iii), subject to the sanctioning authority being satisfied about the pecuniary circumstances and intended use.

The applicant states that the permanent substantive appointment commenced on 15 July 2002, CPF membership existed before 01 February 2005 and University service continued on 31 March 2013. Rule 5 sets out the corresponding subscriber conditions.

The stated subscription-and-interest balance is Rs. 6,00,000/-. The 50% ceiling under Rule 12.1.2 is Rs. 3,00,000/-; the requested Rs. 1,80,000/- is within that ceiling. The applicant declares no previous advance outstanding under Rule 12.1.3.

The proposed principal recovery is 36 equal monthly instalments of Rs. 5,000/- (36 x Rs. 5,000/- = Rs. 1,80,000/-), satisfying the maximum of 36 whole-rupee instalments in Rule 12.1.4. Recovery shall commence from the first occasion on which full-month pay is drawn after payment of the advance, as provided in Rule 12.1.5.

Interest shall be applied at the rate determined by the University under Rule 12.1.6 and ordinarily recovered from pay in the month following full recovery of the principal. As repayment exceeds twenty months, the subscriber may request recovery of interest in two equal monthly instalments where Rule 12.1.6 permits.
